++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A warm and mostly sunny end to the week.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud, especially across southern areas, tending to break up for a time, leaving clear spells. Some cloud pushing back in from the east in the early hours. Quite chilly where skies remain clear for any length of time. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Thursday:
Morning cloud, particularly in the east, clearing as we move into the afternoon making way for plenty of sunshine. Feeling warm with a gentle breeze. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Staying dry with plenty of sunny spells on Friday and Saturday. More sunshine around on Sunday. Warm enough by day, but quite cool overnight.
